She has written columns focusing on Mental health issues, politics and social policy.

Caring for my Son with Mental Illness: A Family's Perspectives

Ms. Ana Long

A Mother of three adult children, and a Registered Early Childhood Educator. She says, " My youngest son has schizophrenia with concurrent disorders. This illness has greatly impacted the quality of life for my son as well as for me and my family. This is a journey that has forced us into an array of eye-opening experiences, some horrendous and heart-wrenching, but some giving room for hope. Becoming educated in the matters of schizophrenia and related issues has been key to our daily survival, but the greatest source of hope lies in the empathetic non-judgmental professional and personal contacts which support us through our very many challenges."
